- _____ Each camp features different activities: during any given week campers may paint with acrylic paints, glazes, cut/sand wood, handle pottery, epoxy, resin, work with glass, glass fusing tools, and possibly use tools and materials not listed here. We will provide guidance on the correct use of the tools and materials, but accidents are an inherent risk. By signing this you are accepting all liability and agreeing to hold Soul Fire Art Studio, Ltd. harmless for any accidents which occur.
- _____ In order for Art Camp to be enjoyable for ALL campers, the instructors and for our walk-in customers that may be painting in the studio during camp, appropriate behavior and participation is expected. In the event that your child becomes disruptive or uncooperative, we will contact you and your child will be excused for the day. No refund will be given for that session.
- _____ Payment in full is expected at the time of registration. We accept checks, cash and debit/credit cards.
- _____ Projects are subject to change depending on availability of supplies and the time it takes for students to complete each project. If your child does not finish during the scheduled time, he/she can return during regular business hours to complete the project.
- _____ If your camper must miss a day of camp, we are happy to provide them with materials and they can complete the project on a walk-in basis.
- _____ Please be prompt in dropping off and picking up your child so that we can stay on schedule. If you are going to be late in picking up your child, please notify us by phone: 262-646-8900. Also, please note that if you are late in picking up your child, we will need to charge you a $15 "Child Care Fee" per 1/2 hour, unless we agree upon an arrangement prior to camp.
- _____ Many of our projects are messy, some can leave permanent stains / tears. Soul Fire provides smocks and encourages behavior that limits risk to clothing, but our campers are creative! - _____ Cancellations: Two or more weeks before camp: If your camper is unable to attend a camp they've signed up for we will refund your payment less a $50 registration fee, or you can apply your fee to another camp with no penalty. Less than two weeks notice: will result in a forfeit of $150, or you can apply your fee to another camp with the payment of an additional $30 fee. If a camper has begun a camp, no refunds can be made. If we have even one camper signed up for a camp, we will hold the camp; that said, if registration is low, we will alert you and it will be up to you whether or not to go forward with this camp or to switch to another. If cancellations occur because kids don't wish to participate in a low-registration week, a full refund will be made.
- _____ We take pictures at our camps of both campers and their projects. You agree that these pictures may be used on our website; social media posts and in promotional materials by Soul Fire Art Studio, Ltd.
- _____ Whenever possible we will have all projects ready to go home at the end of camp; but these are the kiln-fired arts and schedules can vary. Paint-Your-Own-Pottery and Glass Fused projects will take about a week to fire, Hand-Building Clay projects may take longer and may require student to return, glaze and then for us to re-fire. We will contact you when the projects are ready for pick up.
- _____ Only registered students can stay in the designated area for Art Camp. We encourage parents/guardians to use this time as a break for both adult and child. Thank you in advance for your understanding. If your child has separation concerns, we encourage you to sign up for Art Camp and participate with us or you are welcome to choose a separate table and paint your own project while Art Camp is in session!
